"Amerno," the hypnotist, who was scheduled to perform at the opera house three nights, beginning last night, ended his engagement very abruptly last night. The audience in the house when it was time for the show to begin, only numbered about a baker's dozen and the show was called off. The total attendance was 69. "Amerno" left this morning for Burlington, it is said.

By a large majority, Barre granite cutters have gone on record as favoring James Duncan, the present incumbent, for secretary-treasurer of their international association, Duncan getting 635 votes, to 321 for R. A. Brown of Concord, N. H., and 223 for J. J. Dunn of Lowell, Mass. By practically unanimous vote, they have also gone on record in favor of Quincy, Mass., for international association headquarters. Washington, D. C., Boston and New York got small votes.

Every number on the program at the Pavilion proved to be excellent and all seemed to be highly enjoyed by the audience. The act presented by Kennedy and Mac is a laugh producer that keeps the audience in a constant state of merriment. It is a comedy acrobatic act and every stunt they do is a laugh. Blamplin and Hehr were the big hit of the show, and are worthy of all the applause they received. Both members of the act are endowed with singing voices of extraordinary quality and know how to use them with telling effect, every number rendered by them being roundly applauded. Miss Ethel Ray also pleased with singing, dancing and costume changes.

Two men in an advanced stage of intoxication were sitting on the M. & W. station platform at 11 o'clock this forenoon, when the smaller one of the two rolled over and went to sleep. His friend (1) at once pulled his soft hat over the sleeping man's face and began to go through his pockets. Several truckmen and other people standing around Depot square saw the performance, and one witness ran over to the platform and after considerable shaking finally woke up the man whose pockets had just been examined. He was too dull to understand anything and finally wandered off down the M. & W. tracks with the man who had just been through his pockets. Officer Carle was notified and he and Officer Morris found the pair on Granite street and took them to the police station and locked them up.

New Parasols and Sun Umbrellas

Not a whole store full but a full assortment of the very best kinds; not a lot alike but individual styles. These you will want to get first choice. We have them for children, misses, ladies and old ladies. We have marked them at less than the usual profit.

Parasols

Children's Parasols in all colors, made with one ruffle, over a six rib frame, as a special, at 25c each.

Children's Satine Parasols at 50c and Children's Parasols of silk, in pink, white, red and blue, at $1.00 each.

Misses' Parasols, with seven ribbed frame covered with mercerized poplin, have natural birch handles and come in all colors, at only 87c each. (Can match the young lady's dress.)

Ladies' Parasols, covered with linen effects with colored borders, at $1.25. (Worth a little more.)

Ladies' All-Silk Parasols, in all of the staple colors such as navy, Copenhagen and tan, at only $1.98. (A special.)

White Parasols, to wear with white dresses or suits, from $2.35 up.

Black Parasols, with borders, for old ladies.

Poncee Parasols, with Persian borders, are very stylish and very pretty and bound to be popular with the best class of trade.

Ladies' and Gents' Umbrellas

A fortunate purchase of a quantity of Umbrellas direct from the manufacturers as samples at only two-thirds of their usual price.

In this lot are both Ladies' and Gents' Umbrellas at same allowance.

Umbrellas that were $1.25 now at 83c, a $2.00 one for $1.33 and a $3.00 Umbrella for $2.00; quite a lot less than the wholesale price for same Umbrellas.

You can get in this sale a good Gloria Silk Umbrella, in either ladies' or gents' at only $1.50 each.

Warm weather turns the trade to Muslin Underwear. This line is where we can sell you a good, full, well fitting garment at but little more than the material in the web would cost you.

Our line of Corset Covers at 25c and 50c are some of our specials.

Night Robes at 50c, 75c and $1.00, the last price is where we do our best. Let us show you this line.

Embroideries

We have always made a specialty of Embroideries and the last three years have been our best. During that time all of our finer Embroideries have come from Muser Brothers, said to be the most reliable people in the business. We have found them so.

We have a table of special values in Embroideries, ranging in price from one-half to one-third less than usual retail prices. Edges as low as 5c and Demi-flouncings, $1.00 and $1.25 values, at 75c per yard; very deep embroidery.

Flouncings in the finer grades are being used extensively for fashionable dresses, also graduation costumes. With bands to match are very pretty, and make durable dresses.

We are matching these fine Embroideries to plain materials, the two together work out attractive gowns.

Marquise, French Muslins, Chiffons, fine Mercerized Materials, with fine Galoons and Laces to match, are some of our best sellers just now.

Our Glove stock was carefully selected and a few early purchases of long and short Silk Gloves give us a chance to hand you out some extra good Glove values.
